Context: A chef is the most crucial role in a professional kitchen. Menu design, training junior chefs and supplier negotiation are all in a day's work.

Imagine you are expressing yourself in front of your teacher of English and your classmates.

You can use some notes but you will get a D in the oral competence if you only read from your notes throughout the presentation.

You will also get a D in the oral competence if:

- Your presentation is off-topic
- You do not use English language
