Govern d'Andorra

The Gender-Based Violence Service (SAVVG in Catalan) is an interdisciplinary team of professionals with the purpose of offering a specialized resource for women that are victims of gender-based violence that have suffered physical violence, psychological, sexual or any other form of violence against women.

We offer comprehensive care in the following areas:

- Social
- Educational
- Psychological
- Legal
- Employment services
- Housing assistance

• Business hours

Monday to Thursday from 8 am to 5 pm
Fridays from 8 am to 3 pm

• Hotline

181 (freephone number)

You may speak with a member of our team during business hours, however we are available 24/7 to receive information and offer assistance in regards to any type of violence.

For emergencies
contact the police 110

• Who is this for?

This resource is for all women who are experiencing or have been impacted by gender-based violence or harassment during their lifetime. You or your children must have Andorran residency in order to qualify for some of our services.

To have access to our services you are not required to file a police report. You are also not required to stop living with the person causing the gender violence.
